We have redacted any personal information in these emails as Personal Information Relating to a Third Party is exempt from release under Section 40(2) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. This is deemed to be personal information about another individual and disclosure would breach one or more of the principles of the Data Protection Act.

We are not able to provide the monitoring forms which are attached to some of the emails. They contain sensitive information and due to low numbers of <5, we consider that individuals could be identified and disclosure of this information would breach the first data protection principle, which relates to the fair and lawful processing of personal data.
